

DIAGNOSIS

DENGUE FEVER
TYPE 2 DIABETES MELLITUS
HYPERTENSION

CHIEF COMPLAINTS

Fever X 1month

HISTORY OF PRESENTING ILLNESS

Patient came with complains of fever with chills since 1 month on and off, which became continuous since the past 15 days, associated with generalised myalgia and headache. No h/o loose stools, pain abdomen, chest pain, breathlessness, cough or burning micturition. Patient was admitted in nearby hospital, where patient was empirically treated with antimalarials, antibiotics and observed to have low platelet counts (1unit platelet transfusion given) and was referred to father mullers for further management.

PAST HISTORY -

known DM on irregular treatment.

FAMILY HISTORY-

nothing significant.

PERSONAL HISTORY-

diet-mixed; appetite-good; sleep-adequate; bowel and bladder-regular.

BP : 150/80 mmhg

PULSE : 72 bpm

TEMP : 99 F

TREATMENT

T PAN 1-0-0 B/F

T CALPOL 1-1-1

NEB IPRAVENT Q8H

NEB BUDECORT Q8H

INJ H ACTRAPID

T ENALAPRIL 2.5 1-0-0

T NAPROSYN 500 1-0-0